Fifty Something Records proudly presents "Just One Touch," an inspiring anthem featuring the extraordinary talents of GRAMMY-nominated vocalist Ron Poindexter.

In a world brimming with uncertainty and challenges, "Just One Touch" delivers a profound message of hope and transformation. The song captures the essence of finding solace and strength in divine intervention, emphasizing that a single touch from God can reshape our destinies. It's a musical testament to the healing and powerful impact of His presence, leaving us irrevocably transformed.

Jim Vierra, the visionary President of Fifty Something Records, shares a personal connection to the song's uplifting message. "This song holds a special place in my heart as several close friends are currently battling cancer. 'Just One Touch' underscores the belief that divine intervention is all it takes to usher in a positive shift in our lives."

Ron Poindexter, the voice behind "Just One Touch," is a revered figure in the Gospel music scene. His rich musical journey includes collaborations with luminaries such as JJ Hairston, Donnie McClurkin, Vashawn Mitchell, Ricky Dillard, and Anita Wilson. Poindexter's exceptional vocal prowess, coupled with his ability to convey deep emotional resonance, makes "Just One Touch" a beacon of hope and encouragement.

As you immerse yourself in the soul-stirring melodies of "Just One Touch," allow the promise of divine touch to fill you with an unwavering sense of hope and renewal.
